Subject: Re: Discovery responses for Felberbaum

Dear Counsel,

I confirm receipt of your email.

In your discovery response, you stated, "All documents in [y]our possession have been provided." However, we have not received any documentation from you. Please advise.

Additionally, regarding your statement, "Same will be provided upon receipt," could you specify the expected timeframe for production? Your deadline for submission is today.

In your response to Interrogatory 1, you state: "Myself and any others determined appropriate to testify will be provided as soon as possible with all necessary details." Following up on my email to you from yesterday, Petitioner's Initial Disclosures were due on June 6, 2025. We note that you are six days past your deadline, which was already extended by the Court. Please advise on your intention regarding serving the Petitioner's initial disclosures.

Also, you note in your response to RFP 9: "A. Same will be provided upon receipt if any if and when a decision is made regarding any expert witness to be called." Petitioner's deadline to serve Expert Disclosures was on June 3, 2025. We did not consent to an extension to this deadline, nor did the Court offer you more time to serve your expert disclosures.

Lastly, I note that your interrogatory responses have not been verified by your client, which is required under Rule 33 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure. Please provide a signed verification to accompany the responses.

We reserve all rights regarding your failure to comply with the Court's deadlines.

Best,
Camilla
